[HIST-DOC-002] Capt. Pemberton’s 1835 Report on the Eastern Frontier

Translation / Context: Earliest Official British Survey of the Tangkhul Country

Category: HISTORICAL_DOCUMENT | Period: Early 19th Century Colonial | Date: 1835
Place: Calcutta / Manipur Frontier [Eastern Frontier] | Dialect: Luhuppa Historical
Source: Baptist Mission Press, Calcutta (1835)
Clearance: Public Domain | Permission: public_domain | Status: verified

---

Key Figures: Captain R. Boileau Pemberton, Government of India Survey Dept., Baptist Mission Press Calcutta

Topography: Calcutta (Publication) & Eastern Frontier of Manipur / Tangkhul Hills

---

Overview: Landmark 1835 British military and geographical survey published in Calcutta providing the first official cartographic and ethnographic description of the Tangkhul (Luhuppa) hills, village fortifications, pass

---

Indigenous Tangkhul Chronicle / Oral Memory:

1835 kumli Captain R. Boileau Pemberton Report on the Eastern Frontier o
Tangkhul Luhuppa country, village populations, mountain trade routes, ka
Hina printed colonial archives-li Tangkhul hills-wui earliest systematic

---

English Translation & Scholarly Interpretation:

In 1835, Captain R. Boileau Pemberton published his seminal ’Report on t
It documented the Tangkhul (Luhuppa) country, village sizes, strategic m
Pemberton’s report provided the earliest official administrative and car

---

Chronological Milestones & Key Events:

1. 1826-1834: Pemberton conducts extensive surveys following the First Anglo-Burmese War and Treaty of Yandabo.
2. 1835: Published under the authority of the Committee of Public Instruction, Government of India, Calcutta.
3. Contents: Detailed chapters on hill tribes, trade routes connecting Imphal to the Kabaw Valley, and tribal defense.
4. Historical Value: Earliest Western document providing quantitative population estimates and village settlement descriptions.

Key Tangkhul Historical Terminology:

* Kharashun-Lairik : Official government survey report and cartographic
* Luhuppa Ram : The territorial domain of the northern and central
* Khararam-Ralam : Cross-border trade and military pass routes

---