[LIT-CHLD-001] Kachakui Kala Shanao

Translation: The Crow and the Pheasant

Work Type: CHILDREN_LITERATURE | Creator: TLS Primary Curriculum Committee | Year: 2022
Village: Ukhrul | Dialect: Standard Tangkhul | Book ID: BK-TLS-002
Publisher / Source: Tangkhul Literature Society, Manipur
Clearance: Educational Use | Permission: permitted | Status: verified

---

Themes: Children’s moral fable on patience versus impetuous greed,
Etiological explanation of bird plumage and animal characteristics, The Structure & Meter: Playful educational prose with simple sentence syntax and repetitive d

---

Critical Overview: Published in the official Class IV Tangkhul textbook
Zingyar Tangkhul (2022) to teach foundational moral principles through

---

Indigenous Tangkhul Literary Text / Stanzas:

Thotli Kachakui (Crow) kala Shanao (Pheasant) khani akha-akha-li paint s
Shanaona Kachakuili black soot-li marikta chapa-khavai kachon mathat-da
Kachakuina ningkhamachap-da Shanaowui plumages-li colorful spots mathat-

---

English Translation & Literary Rendering:

Once, the Crow (Kachakui) and the Pheasant (Shanao) made a covenant
The pheasant patiently decorated the crow with deep glossy soot, taking Yet the impatient crow splashed colors hastily, giving the pheasant its

---

Key Poetic & Literary Vocabulary Terms:

* Kachakui : The mountain crow / raven
* Shanao : The colorful forest pheasant
* Kachon : Garment / feather plumage

---