[LIT-POEM-002] Kachamwui Meikha

Translation: Embers of Poverty

Work Type: POEM | Creator: Y.K. Shimray | Year: 2021
Village: Ukhrul | Dialect: Standard Tangkhul | Book ID: BK-TLS-011
Publisher / Source: Tangkhul Literature Society, Manipur
Clearance: Educational Curriculum | Permission: permitted | Status: verified

---

Themes: Social realism and empathetic depiction of rural poverty, The dignity of agrarian labor and terraced cultivation, Resilience, spiritual

Structure & Meter: Reflective elegiac poetry in free-flowing stanzas utilizing tactile th

---

Critical Overview: Composed by Y.K. Shimray for Class XI Wordham Tuitam Khare (2021), this piece represents modern Tangkhul literary realism

---

Indigenous Tangkhul Literary Text / Stanzas:

Kachamwui meikhana kaphung chimli lumkaza makhaleiya tharan,
Mayarnao kharashotna terrace luili kashak ot-phun shitsangya.
Tara kashung-eili ning-khikhara, Varewui blessing kachivali ringpha kash

---

English Translation & Literary Rendering:

When the embers of poverty provide meager warmth in the chilly mountain
The resilient laborer climbs to the terraced fields, bearing the heavy y
Though tears may mingle with sweat, trusting gratitude to the Almighty b

---

Key Poetic & Literary Vocabulary Terms:

* Meikha : Glowing embers of the hearth / inner spark of surv
* Kacham : Poverty / simplicity of mountain life
* Kharashot : Enduring grueling labor with quiet dignity