[LIT-POEM-005] Tangkhul Ngalei

Translation: Ode to the Tangkhul Motherland

Work Type: POEM | Creator: Y.K. Shimray | Year: 1985
Village: Ukhrul | Dialect: Standard Tangkhul | Book ID: None
Publisher / Source: Tangkhul Literature Society / Published in Tangkhu
Clearance: Educational Heritage | Permission: community_authorized | Status: verified

---

Themes: Patriotic devotion and veneration of the ancestral homeland (Ava Ram Leishat), Poetic iconography of Mount Shirui and the endemic Shirui

Structure & Meter: Eight-line patriotic lyric ode composed in octosyllabic rhyming quatra

---

Critical Overview: Composed by the esteemed poet Y.K. Shimray and featured in Tangkhul Poetry: Book 1. Regarded as an unofficial cultural anthem of

---

Indigenous Tangkhul Literary Text / Stanzas:

Tangkhul ngalei khamatha, kaphung-yarsho mayon-kazing,
Iramwui ngalung kacham, leikashi eina ngasothong.
I-ava ram, i-arara ram, nawui mang eili pamkapeiya,
Mayarnao khangarang, shanaonao khamatha mayon-ser,

---

English Translation & Literary Rendering:

O beautiful land of the Tangkhul, crowned by soaring mountain ridges,
The sacred soil of our ancestors, flourishing in enduring love and harmo
Land of my mother, land of my ancestral fathers, in your embrace I find
Where brave sons stand vigilant and fair daughters walk in graceful pois

---

Key Poetic & Literary Vocabulary Terms:

* Tangkhul Ngalei : The ancestral homeland / territory of the Tangkhul
* I-arara ram : The land of our remote ancestors / sacred forefath
* Ringkapha : Joyful, flourishing life lived in peace and cultur

---