[LIT-POEM-009] Rachirkhuilu

Translation: Awaken to the Dawn: Poetic Songs and Hymns

Work Type: POEM | Creator: Hoyam Kasomwoshi | Year: 2015
Village: Ukhrul | Dialect: Standard Tangkhul | Book ID: None
Publisher / Source: Ukhrul Community Music & Poetry Publications
Clearance: Community Authorized | Permission: community_authorized | Status: verified

---

Themes: Inspirational awakening of youth (Rachirkhuilu), Devotion to the Tangkhul mother tongue and ancestral virtues, Communal unity around the Structure & Meter: Choral lyric anthem in two octets with stirring call-to-action refrain

---

Critical Overview: Composed by renowned lyricist and musician Hoyam Kasomwoshi. Popularized through community youth conferences and musical

---

Indigenous Tangkhul Literary Text / Stanzas:

Rachirkhuilu iramwui mayarnao, ngashan kazatli ning-kashung,
Kaphung-yarsho eili kazing chiko kashungli laa khamatha seilu.
Meikha kacham thada iramwui tui leishi-kazatlu,
Kacham-kacham ararawui ngashan kachiko thada;

English Translation & Literary Rendering:

Awaken and rise, O youth of our homeland, stand firm in upright integrit
Upon the green terraces at break of dawn, raise your voices in sacred so
Cherish the mother tongue with devotion as steady as glowing coals,
Honoring the noble customs bequeathed by our ancestral founders;

Key Poetic & Literary Vocabulary Terms:

* Rachirkhuilu : Arise, awaken, greet the dawn, take up purposeful
* Ning-kashung : Uprightness of purpose, unwavering steadfastness
* Meingashan : To radiate warmth, shine forth, manifest cultural

---