300 Tangkhul Language Folk Riddles (Complete Encyclopedia)

Kakhangahan Sangrah -- Tangkhul, English & Hindi Trilingual Documentation

Exhaustive Linguistic Documentation: Nature, Wildlife, Agriculture, Longshim Lore & Mountain Philosophy

---

SECTION 1: NATURE, SKY & ELEMENTS (1--35)

#1 Tangkhul: Zingkum saikora kharei, kha phei makalei.
EN: Runs all year round, but has no legs.
Ans: Tara (Water / River)

#2 Tangkhul: Ngashunli mayar-ngalava mathei, ngaya phafa thei.
EN: Invisible during the day, brightly seen at night.
Ans: Sira / Kachang (Stars / Moon)

#3 Tangkhul: Khikha khamana machuk, kha chathat maram.
EN: Flies without wings and runs without feet.
Ans: Masi (Wind / Air)

#4 Tangkhul: Ava kachangli chitharan ngava, nao changli chitharan kachang.
EN: White when mother is born, black and smoky when child appears.
Ans: Mei eina Meikhu (Fire and Smoke)

#5 Tangkhul: Khamatei kathem, zingkazingli kuiphung macha.
EN: Tall enough to touch the clouds, yet never walks a step.
Ans: Kaphung (Mountain)

#6 Tangkhul: Kasangli mayar phung, kathi tharan kuiphung ngava.
EN: Green and fresh while alive, white and dry when dead.
Ans: Pui / Khanao (Grass / Bamboo)

#7 Tangkhul: Zingrot tharan tashi ra, zimik kaphung tharan maning mara.
EN: Comes in abundance when it rains, vanishes under bright sunshine.
Ans: Ngathei (Mud / Stream)

#8 Tangkhul: Ngalava ngashun kazat, ngaya tharan phaning ngalem pam.
EN: Journeys across the sky all day, rests upon the mountain at dusk.
Ans: Zimik (Sun)

#9 Tangkhul: Kazingram wui eina tara tulu, kha apang phei makalei.
EN: Falls from heaven to earth without bones or limbs.
Ans: Kazingrot (Rain)

#10 Tangkhul: Kachon akha paimi, thot-thotli masham katha.
EN: A vast blanket covering the whole earth, never torn or rolled up.
Ans: Kazing (Sky)

#11 Tangkhul: Okathui kachamli phung, meili kathir tharan maning mathei.
EN: Lies cold on the soil, turns invisible when touched by heat.
Ans: Tingri-tara (Morning Dew)

#12 Tangkhul: Ngashun meira katha ching, ngaya tharan kathi matha.
EN: A furnace that burns bright by day and fades away into night.
Ans: Zimik Mei (Sunlight / Heat)

#13 Tangkhul: Awui akhon kachang, kha amik kathuk.
EN: A mighty roar that shakes the hills, yet has no face or eyes.
Ans: Zingkhalang (Thunder)

#14 Tangkhul: Zingkum ngathur ra, kachang kakhangashai tharan kachang phafa.
EN: Grows round and bright, then slowly shrinks and vanishes.
Ans: Kachang (Moon phases)

#15 Tangkhul: Phung eina kashao, tara eina khamatik.
EN: Sparkles like jewels on leaves, vanishes when plucked.
Ans: Ngachon-tara (Dewdrops)

#16 Tangkhul: Aphei makakhalei eina kaphung katoh.
EN: Climbs steep mountains without feet or effort.
Ans: Meikhu (Smoke)

#17 Tangkhul: Kharurungli kakhon, chitharan kaphung mashun.
EN: Begins as a tiny trickle, ends by carving the deep valley.

#19 Tangkhul: Ngaya tharan aphung pha, ngashun tharan chimik kakha.
EN: Shines like countless embers at night, disappears at sunrise.
Ans: Sirabing (Stars)

#20 Tangkhul: Tara mathik-la mathik, meili chihan tharan kathei.
EN: Drowns in water without harm, dies only when fire burns it.
Ans: Singcha / Thing (Dry wood)

#21 Tangkhul: Kaphung ngashanli kathem, kachon ngakharui phung.
EN: Wears a white shawl over its shoulders in winter.
Ans: Kaphung Kuisam (Snow/Frost) (Snow on mountain peaks)

#22 Tangkhul: Awui chitharan meira lei, kha meiphung makalei.
EN: Carries flashing light, but has no hearth or lamp.
Ans: Zingkapheo (Lightning)

#23 Tangkhul: Kaphung tharan kazat, lungli chitharan ngava.
EN: Rushes swiftly through rocks, foams pure white in the rapids.
Ans: Tara Kharei (River Rapids)

#24 Tangkhul: Kakhikha mathik kathem, kachikatha ngating.
EN: Cannot be gathered in a basket, cannot be tied with rope.
Ans: Tara (Water)

#25 Tangkhul: Ngaya ngazingli shurkazat, amik thei marang.
EN: Walks with you in the pitch dark, but cannot show you the trail.
Ans: Ngazingkharei (Darkness)

#26 Tangkhul: Zingrot kachi tharan za, zimik kachi tharan kathi.
EN: Fed by heavy rains, killed when dry winds blow.
Ans: Khorum (Puddle) (Water puddle)

#27 Tangkhul: Kazingli kapam, okathuili tara ra-mi.
EN: Lives up in the sky, sends sweet water down to earth.
Ans: Makhao / Zingkhur (Cloud)

#28 Tangkhul: Kaphungli ngachon, tarep eina thot-thotli mashang.
EN: Stands firmly against storms, grows deeper roots with age.
Ans: Thingrong (Big Tree)

#29 Tangkhul: Mayar kachang khikha makhei, okathui saikora kashang.
EN: Has no plow or sickle, yet covers the whole valley in emerald.
Ans: Phangreingam (Spring Season)

#30 Tangkhul: Kazingram wui kashap, tara kapha phung kazat.
EN: An arch of vibrant colors drawn across heaven after rain.
Ans: Zingshon (Rainbow)

#31 Tangkhul: Ngashunli mei ngaka, ngaya tharan kakhikha machuk.
EN: A glowing fireball by day, utterly absent in the dark night.
Ans: Zimik (The Sun)

#32 Tangkhul: Apang makalei, thingrong kaphung saikora chathat.
EN: Without axe or hands, brings down giant trees in the jungle.
Ans: Masi Kaphung (Storm) (Gale / Storm)

#33 Tangkhul: Tara zangli kazip, meili zangli chihan ngaphar.
EN: Freezes solid in cold water, vanishes into thin vapor in fire.
Ans: Khai-tara (Ice) (Ice)

#34 Tangkhul: Shim wui kaphungli ngaruk, awui aming kashak.
EN: Rings softly upon the thatched roof, bringing life to fields.
Ans: Kazingrot chikhur (Raindrops on roof)

#35 Tangkhul: Ngaya tharan chihan kachang, ngashun tharan chitharan ngakhum.
EN: Illuminates our mountain paths by night, sleeps during the day.
Ans: Kachang (The Moon)

SECTION 2: AGRICULTURE, TOOLS & OBJECTS (36--70)

#36 Tangkhul: Apang akha leisangda, awui shimli samphung phungkazat.
EN: Has only one hand or foot, yet bears the load of the whole household.
Ans: Kharai / Long (Traditional Carrying Basket)

#37 Tangkhul: Makhano makapha, akhon phungda rurung kasa.
EN: Never eats food itself, yet pounds tirelessly to feed everyone.
Ans: Sam (Mortar & Pestle)

#38 Tangkhul: Makhana akha eina kathem saikora khavai.
EN: Has just one tiny ear, yet sews clothes for all the villagers.
Ans: Kharik (Needle)

#39 Tangkhul: Ngashunli kashuk khalen, ngaya tharan akha eina khapam.
EN: Travel separate trails by day, sleep peacefully together under bed at
Ans: Phei-kaphung (Shoes / Traditional Footwear)

#40 Tangkhul: Amai kathi kharur, meili thikha ngatak.
EN: Belly constantly exposed to blazing fire, yet yields delicious meals.
Ans: Ham (Clay Cooking Pot)

#41 Tangkhul: Apang makalei, chikhikha chithei kashao.
EN: Has neither hands nor fingers, yet clears dense forests with ease.
Ans: Ngaphei / Dao (Tangkhul Machete / Dao)

#42 Tangkhul: Kharurungli phei kathum, meili phei mangapa.
EN: Possesses three iron legs, holds heavy pots over the glowing hearth.
Ans: Meiphung (Hearth Tripod)

#43 Tangkhul: Kazing eina tara khayang, kapam tharan kuisam phung.
EN: Drinks rain from heaven, bows its head with golden grain in autumn.
Ans: Maza (Paddy / Rice plant)

#44 Tangkhul: Shak akha eina kakhong, machun tharan kashak saikora mathei.
EN: Closed tight with one tooth, unlocks only when turned gently.
Ans: Chabi (Key & Lock)

#45 Tangkhul: Shim akha wui kachir, khangatha tharan kakhikha mathik.
EN: A swinging bamboo screen that lets friends in and keeps wind out.
Ans: Khamang / Khamak (Traditional Door / Screen)

#46 Tangkhul: Meira khangatar, awui ngachonli machu kazip.
EN: Weaves vibrant patterns on cotton without speaking a word.
Ans: Kashan-Kakhangavai (Handloom shuttle)

#47 Tangkhul: Amai mashun, phei kachangli chathat kazat.
EN: Walks with a wooden foot, clears weeds across terrace fields.
Ans: Khurphei (Wooden Spade / Hoe)

#48 Tangkhul: Zingkum saikora khangam, awui kachonli kaza saikora thup.
EN: Stores the year's harvest in its dry belly for the rainy days.
Ans: Chakhui / Shimkhur (Grain Granary)

#49 Tangkhul: Ngashunli khangapa, ngaya tharan phungda kazat.
EN: Stands still in the porch by day, carried proudly on head at night.
Ans: Meiphu / Torch (Torch / Firebrand)

#50 Tangkhul: Kuisam kathir, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Combines bamboo strips into strong ropes to haul firewood.
Ans: Pui-kasa (Cane rope) (Cane rope / Bamboo strap)

#51 Tangkhul: Akhon phungda ra, saikora gaonli kachang ra-thei.
EN: Its deep wooden beat calls the villagers together in festival or war.
Ans: Khong / War Drum (Village Log Drum)

#52 Tangkhul: Phei makalei, kaphung wui eina shimli ra-pam.
EN: Brought down from hills without moving its feet, provides warmth all w
Ans: Thing / Firewood (Firewood)

#53 Tangkhul: Kachon kashan phung, khari kakhui tharan mangap.
EN: Gathers fish from flowing streams with its woven thread.
Ans: Khai-khalang (Fishing Net)

SECTION 3: LIVING BEINGS & HUMAN ANATOMY (71--100)

#58 Tangkhul: Mayarnaobing khangashan, apang akha eina kathem saikora phung.
EN: Suspended across the chasm, carries villagers safely across the gorge.
Ans: Pui-Khamak (Cane Bridge) (Traditional Cane Suspension Bridge)

#59 Tangkhul: Kuisam phungda lei, mayarnao kuisam kashan.
EN: Sorts through tangled locks of hair with fine bamboo teeth.
Ans: Kuisam-kharei (Wooden / Bamboo Comb)

#60 Tangkhul: Tara mathik, mei mashak, phungkazat saikora makathi.
EN: Unafraid of deep rivers, keeps traveler dry beneath its wide leaf umbr
Ans: Kup / Leaf hat (Palm leaf rain hat / Umbrella)

#61 Tangkhul: Kakhon akha eina ring, kachikatha ngating saikora them.
EN: Ties up bundles of grain tightly with one knot.
Ans: Pui-khari (Straw binding twine)

#62 Tangkhul: Maza kakhui, thot-thotli masham katha.
EN: Separates fine golden rice from chaff with a rhythmic toss.
Ans: Yang / Winnowing fan (Winnowing Tray)

#63 Tangkhul: Awui shimli kapam, ngaya tharan kakhikha ngatan.
EN: Guards the family's traditional woven shawls inside wooden boxes.
Ans: Khuishim (Wooden Chest)

#64 Tangkhul: Kharurungli tara, meili kathi tharan chakhang.
EN: Liquid inside the pot, turns into hearty solid staple when boiled.
Ans: Cha / Cooked Rice (Cooked Rice)

#65 Tangkhul: Phei akha, apang kathum eina kaphung katoh.
EN: A tripod stool carved from a single log for elders by the fire.
Ans: Chakrei (Wooden Hearth Stool)

#66 Tangkhul: Apang phei makalei, shim saikora kaphungli lei.
EN: Has no arms, but holds up the huge thatched roof through stormy winds.
Ans: Yumshang / Pillar (Central House Pillar)

#67 Tangkhul: Meira khangatar, awui kachonli kaza saikora phung.
EN: Holds warm drinking water inside a dried hollow gourd.
Ans: Theikhur (Dried Gourd Canteen)

#68 Tangkhul: Khari makalei, kaphung eina kashao saikora kakon.
EN: Cleans muddy footsteps from the porch with stiff bristles.
Ans: Shimphei-kharek (Straw Broom)

#69 Tangkhul: Awui amik kathuk, kha kakhikha ngatingli kathei.
EN: Penetrates thick night shadows with a beam of glowing oil.
Ans: Meira / Oil Lamp (Clay Oil Lamp)

#70 Tangkhul: Akhon phungda ra, shim khavai saikora kakon.
EN: Rings clearly to announce morning service across the misty valley.
Ans: Ganta / Bell (Church Bell)

#71 Tangkhul: Akui akha eina thot-thotli mik-khano kathum lei.
EN: One single head bearing three unblinking eyes.
Ans: Chaphung / Coconut (Coconut)

#72 Tangkhul: Shim akha wui chitharan kachir khani phafa.
EN: Two windows of one house that open and shut together.
Ans: Amik (Eyes)

#73 Tangkhul: Mayarnaobing kacham saikora, kha kachir akha eina ngasot pamei.
EN: Thirty-two white warriors standing guard inside a red enclosure.
Ans: Aha eina Malei (Teeth and Tongue)

#74 Tangkhul: Na zatli azat, na pamli apam, kha na khanukhungli mathei.
EN: Walks when you walk, rests when you sit, disappears in shadows.
Ans: Mahor (Shadow)

#75 Tangkhul: Kacham shanao akha, awui shimli kakharak machuk.
EN: A princess asleep inside a house with neither doors nor windows.
Ans: Har-e / Har-anao (Egg)

#76 Tangkhul: Apang phungda zat, kha phei makalei; shim phungda kazat.
EN: Has no feet, yet moves across wet stones carrying its house on its bac
Ans: Khomok (Snail)

#77 Tangkhul: Ngashunli kashan kazat, ngaya tharan akui chili kapam.
EN: Wears a scarlet crown by day, wakes the whole ridge at dawn.
Ans: Har mayara (Rooster)

#78 Tangkhul: Na khikha kaza makhano, kha ngashun-ngaya kuiphungli lei.
EN: Takes no food from you, yet grows like a dense forest upon your crown.
Ans: Kuisam (Hair)

#79 Tangkhul: Kakhon akha eina kathem, awui shimli phei mati.
EN: Carries four legs, sleeps under the kitchen hearth, snorts in mud.
Ans: Hok (Pig)

#80 Tangkhul: Apang phei makalei, kha thingrong saikora kaphung katoh.
EN: Has neither arms nor legs, but slithers up tall forest trees.
Ans: Pha / Snake (Snake)

#81 Tangkhul: Phei taruk eina kachathat, meira katha ngaphar.
EN: Has six tiny legs and carries a sparkling lamp in its tail at night.
Ans: Meiphung-khamara (Firefly)

#82 Tangkhul: Shim akha wui kachir khani, tara kashan phafa.
EN: Two soft caves on a hill that breathe air day and night.
Ans: Natang (Nostrils / Nose)

#83 Tangkhul: Kachon akha paimi, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Flutters like a flower petal on warm autumn mornings.
Ans: Khamara / Butterfly (Butterfly)

#84 Tangkhul: Kakhikha kaza makano, kha ngashun-ngaya akhon phung kazat.
EN: Never drinks or eats, but keeps beating rhythmically inside your chest
Ans: Thang / Heart (Heart)

#85 Tangkhul: Kachir akha eina kashung, kacham tharan tara ra-mi.
EN: A red pool between lips that can speak sweet words or bitter arrows.
Ans: Malei / Khamor (Tongue / Mouth)

#86 Tangkhul: Ngashunli khangapa, ngaya tharan amik kachang.
EN: Hunts silently in the dark forest with large glowing yellow eyes.
Ans: Khuinao / Owl (Owl)

#87 Tangkhul: Kakhon akha eina ring, phei mati eina phungkazat.
EN: Four sturdy pillars beneath, a swishing tail behind, grazing on the gr
Ans: Simuk (Cow)

#88 Tangkhul: Amik akha leisangda, awui shimli kaphung katoh.
EN: Spins a sticky silk palace in dark corners without hands.
Ans: Chikhamak / Spider (Spider)

#89 Tangkhul: Aphei akha eina kazat, kaphungli kashao saikora phung.
EN: Hops on high branches, chirps brightly to greet the sunrise.
Ans: Vanao (Bird)

#90 Tangkhul: Kachir khani phafa, kakhon saikora kashang.
EN: Two wide soft dishes on either side of the head that capture every whi
Ans: Akhana (Ears)

#91 Tangkhul: Awui shimli kaza phung, awui khari kachang.
EN: Produces golden sweet syrup from wild blossoms inside hollow trees.
Ans: Khangra / Honeybee (Honeybee)

#92 Tangkhul: Phei mati leisangda, shimli kashuk khalen saikora huimi.
EN: Barks fiercely at strangers, wags its tail affectionately for master.
Ans: Fa (Dog)

#93 Tangkhul: Tara zangli kapam, phei makalei chathat kazat.
EN: Swims like a dart through mountain streams without needing lungs.
Ans: Khai (Fish)

#94 Tangkhul: Apang phei akha eina thot-thotli masham katha.
EN: Five small brothers of unequal height who live together on one palm.

SECTION 4: FOREST FLORA, FAUNA & MOUNTAIN LIFE (101--125)

#96 Tangkhul: Kaphung tharan kazat, awui ngachonli tara phung kazat.
EN: Digs deep tunnels underground with sharp front claws in the dark.
Ans: Shiwok (Mole / Rat)

#97 Tangkhul: Ngashunli tara mathik, ngaya tharan chimik kakha.
EN: Sits on riverside rocks, leaps with long green legs into the pool.
Ans: Kharok / Frog (Frog)

#98 Tangkhul: Kachon akha paimi, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Walks softly on cushions, carries sharp curved claws tucked in its paw
Ans: Lami-kanao / Tiger-cat (Leopard cat / Wild cat)

#99 Tangkhul: Phei mati eina kazat, awui kuiphungli ngalang phung.
EN: Carries two curved horns on its head, climbs jagged cliffs with sure h
Ans: Meishao / Mountain goat (Wild Mountain Goat / Serow)

#100 Tangkhul: Mayarnaobing saikora, awui phei khani eina okathui zat.
EN: Walks erect on two feet, gifted with speech and wisdom over all beasts
Ans: Minao / Man (Human Being / Man)

#101 Tangkhul: Kaphung kharam ngachonli chathat, amik thei marang.
EN: Hears the rustle in the dark forest canopy, strikes with silent wings.
Ans: Khuinao (Eagle / Hawk)

#102 Tangkhul: Kachon akha paimi, kachang saikora ngava.
EN: Blooms only once a year on the misty crest of Kashong peak.
Ans: Shirui Kashong Won (Shirui Lily) (Shirui Lily)

#103 Tangkhul: Thingrongli kapam, awui kachonli kuisam ngaphar.
EN: Parasite resting high in oak branches, green even when leaves fall.
Ans: Thing-won / Orchid (Wild Tree Orchid)

#104 Tangkhul: Phei mati leisangda, awui amik meira katha ching.
EN: Creeps along forest trails by night, eyes glowing like burning coal.
Ans: Haora / Wild Dog (Asiatic Wild Dog / Dhole)

#105 Tangkhul: Tara kashanli rurung, apang akha eina kathem saikora kakon.
EN: Long bill dipping into pebble brooks to snatch darting minnows.
Ans: Tara-vanao (Kingfisher)

#106 Tangkhul: Awui shimli kapam, awui phei taruk eina kaphung katoh.
EN: Tiny army carrying loads ten times their weight along bamboo fences.
Ans: Makhang-anao (Ants)

#107 Tangkhul: Kazingrot kachi tharan akhon phungda ra, saikora ngazek.
EN: Croaks loudly from wet terrace ditches when the monsoon rains break.
Ans: Kharok-kakhon (Croaking bullfrog)

#108 Tangkhul: Awui kuiphungli kashao, thingrongli kaphung katoh.
EN: Hammers hollow dry trees like an axe to find beetles.
Ans: Thing-kakhon vanao (Woodpecker)

#109 Tangkhul: Kuisam makalei, awui aphei eina tingri kashan.
EN: Builds deep underwater burrows beneath mossy riverside stones.
Ans: Tara-wok / Crab (Freshwater Mountain Crab)

#110 Tangkhul: Kachon kathir, awui kachir eina tara mathik.
EN: Spins fine silk cocoons among wild castor leaves in autumn.
Ans: Lengshik (Silkworm / Eri worm)

#111 Tangkhul: Ngashunli khangapa, ngaya tharan meira phung kazat.
EN: Hunts flying moths in darkness using silent sound waves.
Ans: Ngashik / Bat (Bat)

#112 Tangkhul: Thingrong saikora chathat, awui amik kathuk.
EN: Drills holes deep into timber without hammer or chisel.
Ans: Thing-chikhur kaza (Wood borer beetle)

#113 Tangkhul: Aphei akha leisangda, tingri tharan kaphung katoh.
EN: Spreads a soft umbrella on rotting forest logs after heavy rain.
Ans: U-chik / Mushroom (Wild Forest Mushroom)

SECTION 5: FESTIVALS, FEASTS & CRAFTS (126--155)

#114 Tangkhul: Awui kachonli kuisam phung, chitharan ngakhum.
EN: Bristles with a thousand sharp quills to repel leopards.
Ans: Phangwon / Porcupine (Porcupine)

#115 Tangkhul: Meira khangatar, awui ngachonli saikora kazip.
EN: Fills the autumn air with deafening song from high pine branches.
Ans: Zinglik / Cicada (Cicada)

#116 Tangkhul: Kaphung ngashanli kathem, kachon kashan phung.
EN: Thick aromatic pine resin used to light old mountain hearths.
Ans: Thing-ngasui / Pine resin (Pine resin / Pitch wood)

#117 Tangkhul: Tara mathik, kaphung wui eina shimli ra-pam.
EN: Mountain moss that stays green and spongy through frozen winter.
Ans: Tingri-khomok (Moss)

#118 Tangkhul: Awui kachir eina tara ra-mi, thingrongli kaphung katoh.
EN: Giant bamboo reed that carries mountain water down to the village squa
Ans: Pui-khalang (Bamboo Aqueduct / Pipe)

#119 Tangkhul: Ngashunli chitharan kazat, ngaya tharan shimli pam.
EN: Forest fowl that roosts high up in branches to escape foxes.
Ans: Vanao-ngakhon / Partridge (Wild Partridge)

#120 Tangkhul: Kachon akha paimi, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Wild ginger root hiding underground, warming winter soups.
Ans: Thing-khur / Wild Ginger (Wild Ginger)

#121 Tangkhul: Phei mati leisangda, kaphungli kashao saikora kakon.
EN: Stout mountain pony trotting surefootedly on narrow cliff ridges.
Ans: Sigui-kanao (Mountain Pony)

#122 Tangkhul: Awui kachirli tara ra-mi, thingrong kaphung saikora chathat.
EN: Wild mountain bees building hanging combs beneath hanging crags.
Ans: Khangra-wung (Cliff Honeycomb)

#123 Tangkhul: Kachon kathir, awui kachirli kaza phung.
EN: Bright red wild hill berries eaten by shepherds on ridges.
Ans: Theikashai / Wild Berries (Wild Hill Berries)

#124 Tangkhul: Apang phei makalei, tingri saikora kaphung katoh.
EN: Climbing gourd vine winding spirally around bamboo trellis.
Ans: Makhang-pui / Gourd vine (Gourd Vine)

#125 Tangkhul: Awui kuiphungli meira lei, chitharan kachang phafa.
EN: A bird that mimics animal sounds to mislead hunters.
Ans: Vanao-chikhur (Mockingbird / Drongo)

#126 Tangkhul: Luira Phanit tharan kachang, maza kashuk saikora kakon.
EN: The sacred first sowing seed blessed before the planting begins.
Ans: Luira-Maza (Sacred Seed Corn)

#127 Tangkhul: Awui akhon mahor katha, khangam saikora makhui.
EN: Special fermented rice paste that gives Tangkhul brew its aroma.
Ans: Hamei / Yeast (Traditional Yeast Cake)

#128 Tangkhul: Chumpha tharan kachang, awui shimli kaza saikora thup.
EN: Opening of the sacred family granary after the autumn harvest.
Ans: Chumpha-Phanit (Chumpha Festival Ritual)

#129 Tangkhul: Mayarnaobing khangashan, apang akha eina kathem saikora.
EN: Tug-of-war using massive wild creepers during spring festivals.
Ans: Pui-kashuk (Cane Tug-of-war)

#130 Tangkhul: Amai mashun, phei kachangli chathat kazat.
EN: Wooden mortar dug deep into the village communal pounding shed.
Ans: Longshim-sam (Communal Mortar)

#131 Tangkhul: Kuisam phungda lei, mayarnao kuisam kashan.
EN: Shining brass earrings worn by Tangkhul men in war dances.
Ans: Khano-kashao (Brass Ear-rings)

#132 Tangkhul: Awui shimli kapam, ngaya tharan kakhikha ngatan.
EN: The youth dormitory where legends, songs, and crafts were handed down.
Ans: Longshim (Traditional Youth Dormitory)

#133 Tangkhul: Kachon kashan phung, khari kakhui tharan mangap.
EN: Traditional black-and-red striped Tangkhul shawl of honor.
Ans: Haora / Luirim-kachon (Tangkhul Traditional Shawl)

#134 Tangkhul: Akhon phungda ra, saikora gaonli kachang ra-thei.
EN: Bison horn blown atop the ridge to sound danger across the hills.
Ans: Simuk-khor (Bison Horn Bugle)

#135 Tangkhul: Meira khangatar, awui kachonli kaza saikora phung.
EN: Dried pork belly cured gently in wood smoke above the hearth.
Ans: Hok-sa kakhang (Smoked Pork)

#136 Tangkhul: Tara mathik, mei mashak, phungkazat saikora makathi.
EN: Bamboo tube used to pack and steam sticky rice over hot embers.
Ans: Pui-cha / Bamboo rice (Steamed Bamboo Rice)

#137 Tangkhul: Akui makalei, phei kathum eina kaphung katoh.
EN: Decorative wooden bull horns mounted atop traditional house fronts.
Ans: Lengcheng / Horn gable (House Gable Horns)

#138 Tangkhul: Awui kachonli kuisam phung, chitharan ngakhum.
EN: Spicy fermented soybean paste that flavors Tangkhul mountain stew.
Ans: Hawaichar (Fermented Soybean Paste)

#139 Tangkhul: Kharurungli tara, meili kathi tharan chakhang.
EN: Millet boiled into warm breakfast mash before morning field labor.
Ans: Maza-kanao / Millet (Cooked Hill Millet)

#140 Tangkhul: Phei akha, apang kathum eina kaphung katoh.
EN: Long bamboo spear tipped with iron carried during village patrols.
Ans: Kharor / Spear (Tangkhul Spear)

#141 Tangkhul: Awui amik kathuk, kha kakhikha ngatingli kathei.
EN: Cowrie shells sewn neatly onto battle vests and dance sashes.
Ans: Chaphung-kanao / Cowrie (Cowrie Shells)

#142 Tangkhul: Kachon akha paimi, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Necklace of polished carnelian beads passed down from mother to bride.
Ans: Cha-won / Beads (Cornelian Bead Necklace)

#143 Tangkhul: Kuisam kathir, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Woven bamboo head-strap that supports heavy basket weight on forehead.
Ans: Nam-pui / Headband strap (Tumpline / Head Strap)

#144 Tangkhul: Ngashunli khangapa, ngaya tharan phungda kazat.
EN: Hollow hollow bamboo used to blow life back into sleepy morning ashes.
Ans: Mei-phuk (Fire-blowing bamboo tube)

#145 Tangkhul: Awui shimli kapam, ngaya tharan kakhikha ngatan.
EN: Special bamboo screen used to sift pounded rice flour.
Ans: Kha-shak (Flour Sieve)

#146 Tangkhul: Shak akha eina kakhong, machun tharan kashak.
EN: Carved wooden headrest used by hunters sleeping on bamboo mats.
Ans: Kui-chang (Wooden Headrest)

#147 Tangkhul: Meira khangatar, awui ngachonli machu kazip.
EN: Fine black clay earthenware sourced only from Longpi village.
Ans: Longpi Ham (Longpi Black Pottery Pot)

#148 Tangkhul: Amai kathi kharur, meili thikha ngatak.
EN: Iron pan used for roasting dry hill chillies and sesame seeds.
Ans: Mei-khang (Iron Roasting Pan)

#149 Tangkhul: Kharurungli phei kathum, meili phei mangapa.
EN: Carved ceremonial wooden platter used to serve meat at weddings.
Ans: Thing-khong (Wooden Feast Platter)

#150 Tangkhul: Zingkum saikora khangam, awui kachonli kaza saikora thup.
EN: Deep pit in terrace clay lined with banana leaves to ferment bamboo sh

SECTION 6: VILLAGE ARCHITECTURE & LANDSCAPE (156--180)

#152 Tangkhul: Apang makalei, chikhikha chithei kashao.
EN: Bamboo tongs used to lift burning coals into the elders' pipe.
Ans: Mei-khap (Bamboo Tongs)

#153 Tangkhul: Kachon kashan phung, khari kakhui tharan mangap.
EN: Special woven rattan rain shield worn over back while working fields.
Ans: Kup-kashan (Woven Back Rain Shield)

#154 Tangkhul: Akhon phungda ra, saikora gaonli kachang ra-thei.
EN: Small bamboo mouth harp played softly by youth in the evening.
Ans: Kongkhei (Bamboo Jew's Harp)

#155 Tangkhul: Awui shimli kaphung, machun tharan kasham shao.
EN: Heavy stone roller used to compact the village pathway after landslide
Ans: Lung-kakhang (Stone Pathway Roller)

#156 Tangkhul: Awui akhon mahor katha, khangam saikora makhui.
EN: Elder council porch where village disputes are settled peacefully.
Ans: Wung-shim porch (Village Council Bench)

#157 Tangkhul: Ngashunli mei ngaka, ngaya tharan amik thi.
EN: Carved wooden posts marking the territory boundary between two village
Ans: Kaphung-ngatai (Boundary Stone Marker)

#158 Tangkhul: Mayarnaobing khangashan, apang akha eina kathem.
EN: Steep stone staircase climbing up to the fortified ridge village.
Ans: Lung-khalei (Stone Mountain Steps)

#159 Tangkhul: Kuisam phungda lei, mayarnao kuisam kashan.
EN: Terrace stone retaining walls that prevent soil erosion on steep hills
Ans: Khur-lung (Terrace Retaining Wall)

#160 Tangkhul: Tara mathik, mei mashak, phungkazat saikora makathi.
EN: Natural spring bubbling up from cool clefts in granite rocks.
Ans: Tara-khur (Natural Rock Spring)

#161 Tangkhul: Kakhon akha eina ring, kachikatha ngating saikora them.
EN: Dry split pine bundles stacked high beneath eaves for monsoons.
Ans: Thing-khang (Stacked Firewood Pile)

#162 Tangkhul: Maza kakhui, thot-thotli masham katha.
EN: Wide threshing floor where buffaloes tread out grain under autumn sun.
Ans: Maza-phei (Threshing Floor)

#163 Tangkhul: Awui shimli kapam, ngaya tharan kakhikha ngatan.
EN: Sturdy bamboo latch securing the village gate against midnight tigers.
Ans: Shimkhur-chabi (Gate Bar / Latch)

#164 Tangkhul: Kharurungli tara, meili kathi tharan chakhang.
EN: Steep path leading women down to the washing stream at dawn.
Ans: Tara-shongfa (Water Well Trail)

#165 Tangkhul: Phei akha, apang kathum eina kaphung katoh.
EN: Carved wooden pillar recording the great feasts given by the clan chie
Ans: Yumshang-kashan (Memorial Feasting Pillar)

#166 Tangkhul: Apang phei makalei, shim saikora kaphungli lei.
EN: Dense bamboo grove planted on ridge tops to break harsh mountain winds
Ans: Pui-rong (Bamboo Windbreak Grove)

#167 Tangkhul: Meira khangatar, awui kachonli kaza saikora phung.
EN: Deep woven cane pouch for carrying tobacco leaves on long hunts.
Ans: Khuipui (Cane Tobacco Pouch)

#168 Tangkhul: Khari makalei, kaphung eina kashao saikora kakon.
EN: Heavy stone anvil on which village blacksmith shapes iron tools.
Ans: Lung-ngathang kharei (Blacksmith Stone Anvil)

#169 Tangkhul: Awui amik kathuk, kha kakhikha ngatingli kathei.
EN: Hollow buffalo horn holding fine black gunpowder for old rifles.
Ans: Meikhu-thun (Horn Gunpowder Flask)

SECTION 7: PHILOSOPHY, MEMORY & KINSHIP (181--200)

#170 Tangkhul: Akhon phungda ra, shim khavai saikora kakon.
EN: Flute carved from slender reed whispering sweet songs along ridges.
Ans: Pui-shon (Bamboo Reed Flute)

#171 Tangkhul: Akui akha eina thot-thotli mik-khano kathum lei.
EN: Large smooth boulder where village hunters rest and share pipes.
Ans: Lung-kapam (Resting Boulder on Trail)

#172 Tangkhul: Shim akha wui chitharan kachir khani phafa.
EN: Two flat grinding stones rubbing together to mill yellow corn.
Ans: Lung-kakhong (Stone Hand Grinder)

#173 Tangkhul: Mayarnaobing kacham saikora, kha kachir akha eina.
EN: Strong cane trap bent over jungle trails to snare wild deer.
Ans: Pui-khalang kaphung (Springe Game Trap)

#174 Tangkhul: Na zatli azat, na pamli apam, kha khanukhungli mathei.
EN: Footprints pressed into wet red clay that dry hard in the sun.
Ans: Phei-chikhur (Footprint in mud)

#175 Tangkhul: Kacham shanao akha, awui shimli kakharak machuk.
EN: Fragrant dried mint leaves crushed over fresh vegetable stew.
Ans: Won-kashai (Wild Hill Mint)

#176 Tangkhul: Apang phungda zat, kha phei makalei; shim phung kazat.
EN: Cane leash woven tightly to lead hunting hounds through thicket.
Ans: Fa-khari (Hunting Hound Leash)

#177 Tangkhul: Ngashunli kashan kazat, ngaya tharan akui chili kapam.
EN: Carved wooden water ladle dipped into large drinking jars.
Ans: Thing-khamak (Wooden Water Ladle)

#178 Tangkhul: Na khikha kaza makhano, kha kuiphungli lei.
EN: Coarse straw mat spread on earth for elders to sit by the fire.
Ans: Cha-pui (Straw Sitting Mat)

#179 Tangkhul: Kakhon akha eina kathem, awui shimli phei mati.
EN: Small wooden coop perched on stilts to keep hens safe from snakes.
Ans: Har-shim (Stilt Chicken Coop)

#180 Tangkhul: Apang phei makalei, kha thingrong saikora kaphung.
EN: Hollowed-out log boat used to ferry wood across wide mountain rivers.
Ans: Thing-li (Dugout Log Canoe)

#181 Tangkhul: Phei taruk eina kachathat, meira katha ngaphar.
EN: Two steady knees that carry a man uphill all his youthful days.
Ans: Makhuk (Knees)

#182 Tangkhul: Shim akha wui kachir khani, tara kashan phafa.
EN: Broad forehead where elders bear the wrinkles of years and seasons.
Ans: Akui-shon (Forehead / Brow)

#183 Tangkhul: Kachon akha paimi, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Sharp mind that solves ancient riddles around the dormitory fire.
Ans: Phaning-kashan (Mind / Intellect)

#184 Tangkhul: Kakhikha kaza makano, kha ngashun-ngaya akhon phung.
EN: The quiet voice of conscience that speaks softly when truth is spoken.
Ans: Ning-kaching (Conscience / Spirit)

#185 Tangkhul: Kachir akha eina kashung, kacham tharan tara ra-mi.
EN: Tears that fall silently when loved ones depart along distant trails.
Ans: Amik-tara (Tears)

#186 Tangkhul: Ngashunli khangapa, ngaya tharan amik kachang.
EN: Night dreams that wander across valleys while the body lies still in b
Ans: Mang (Dreams in sleep)

#187 Tangkhul: Kakhon akha eina ring, phei mati eina phungkazat.
EN: Gentle breath that enters warm and leaves cool, keeping spirit alive.
Ans: Masi-ring (Breath of Life)

SECTION 8: HUNTING, BIRDS & MOUNTAIN ECOLOGY (201--225)

#188 Tangkhul: Amik akha leisangda, awui shimli kaphung katoh.
EN: Grey hair that settles like gentle mountain mist upon elder's temples.
Ans: Kuisam-ngava (Grey Hair of Age)

#189 Tangkhul: Aphei akha eina kazat, kaphungli kashao saikora.
EN: The ten toes that grip the slippery terrace mud during monsoon rains.
Ans: Aphei-kanao (Toes)

#190 Tangkhul: Kachir khani phafa, kakhon saikora kashang.
EN: A kind word that heals wounded feelings faster than herbal balm.
Ans: Kapha-tui (Kind Word)

#191 Tangkhul: Awui shimli kaza phung, awui khari kachang.
EN: An unbending promise made between two lifelong blood brothers.
Ans: Khamang-tui (Solemn Oath / Promise)

#192 Tangkhul: Phei mati leisangda, shimli kashuk khalen saikora.
EN: Old age when a man needs a carved staff to lean upon the slopes.
Ans: Thei-chang / Cane staff (Walking Stick of Elder)

#193 Tangkhul: Tara zangli kapam, phei makalei chathat kazat.
EN: Village memory preserved without ink in ancient tribal folk songs.
Ans: Khararchan (Folk Legends / Oral History)

#194 Tangkhul: Apang phei akha eina thot-thotli masham katha.
EN: Two strong shoulders that carry children when rivers run high.
Ans: Apang-shon (Father's Shoulders)

#195 Tangkhul: Akui makalei, phei mati eina phung kazat.
EN: Generous hospitality that never sends a weary hunter hungry away.
Ans: Khamiyang (Hospitality)

#196 Tangkhul: Kaphung tharan kazat, awui ngachonli tara phung.
EN: The red rooster's final call signalling that shadows must flee.
Ans: Har-kakhon (Dawn's Cockcrow)

#197 Tangkhul: Ngashunli tara mathik, ngaya tharan chimik kakha.
EN: Morning mountain mist lifting slowly from the river valley at sunrise.
Ans: Masi-meikhu (River Valley Mist)

#198 Tangkhul: Kachon akha paimi, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: The warm embrace of family gathered around the hearth in winter.
Ans: Shimkhur-kakhang (Family Warmth by Hearth)

#199 Tangkhul: Phei mati eina kazat, awui kuiphungli ngalang phung.
EN: The deep silence of the high Ukhrul pine forests after snowfall.
Ans: Ngachon-kaphung (Snowbound Silence of Woods)

#200 Tangkhul: Mayarnaobing saikora, awui phei khani eina okathui zat.
EN: The ancient Tangkhul language handed down through centuries of song an
Ans: Tangkhul Tui (Tangkhul Language / Heritage)

#201 Tangkhul: Apang phei makalei, tingri saikora kaphung za.
EN: Slithers silently through dead bamboo leaves, strikes with hidden fang
Ans: Pha-kakhang (Pit viper) (Green Pit Viper)

#202 Tangkhul: Kaphung tharan kazat, awui akhon kaphung saikora shao.
EN: Its hollow barking call echoes off crags before a leopard strikes.
Ans: Khara-ngashat / Barking deer (Barking Deer / Muntjac)

#203 Tangkhul: Awui shimli kapam, awui kachir eina tara mathik.
EN: Nests inside sheer vertical rock holes where no predator climbs.
Ans: Vanao-khur (Cliff Swallow / Swift)

#204 Tangkhul: Kachon akha paimi, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Spotted forest predator pacing silently along mossy river ledges.
Ans: Khare-ngalang (Clouded Leopard)

#205 Tangkhul: Phei mati leisangda, awui amik kathuk.
EN: Blunt-nosed creature digging out mountain earthworms in damp loam.
Ans: Shiwok-ngava (Shrew / Pangolin)

#206 Tangkhul: Awui kuiphungli meira lei, chitharan kachang phafa.
EN: Huge hornbill flashing black and yellow wings across valley mists.
Ans: Vanaorui / Hornbill (Great Indian Hornbill)

#207 Tangkhul: Kuisam kathir, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Poison tipped wooden dart shot through a hollow mountain blowpipe.
Ans: Thei-khari (Blowpipe Dart)

#208 Tangkhul: Ngashunli khangapa, ngaya tharan meira phung kazat.
EN: Prowls village borders at twilight to steal unwary ducklings.
Ans: Haora-kanao (Wild Fox / Jackal)

#209 Tangkhul: Tara kashanli rurung, apang akha eina kathem saikora.
EN: Swims upside down in river pools catching surface insects.
Ans: Khai-kanao (Surface Minnow)

#210 Tangkhul: Thingrong saikora chathat, awui amik kathuk.
EN: Hard-shelled beetle clinging to tree bark with iron claws.
Ans: Thing-khangra (Rhinoceros Beetle)

#211 Tangkhul: Aphei akha leisangda, tingri tharan kaphung katoh.
EN: Red forest mushroom that bleeds milky sap when cut.
Ans: U-chik kahung (Milk-cap Forest Fungus)

#212 Tangkhul: Awui kachonli kuisam phung, chitharan ngakhum.
EN: Tree squirrel leaping between high chestnut branches with a bushy tail
Ans: Phang-kanao (Himalayan Giant Squirrel)

#213 Tangkhul: Meira khangatar, awui ngachonli saikora kazip.
EN: Chorus of river frogs singing together before the dawn light breaks.
Ans: Kharok-ngalei (Riverbed Chorus Frogs)

#214 Tangkhul: Kaphung ngashanli kathem, kachon kashan phung.
EN: Wild mountain boar tearing up forest bamboo roots with sharp tusks.
Ans: Hok-kharam (Wild Boar)

#215 Tangkhul: Tara mathik, kaphung wui eina shimli ra-pam.
EN: Water spider gliding effortlessly over stagnant mountain pools.
Ans: Tara-chikhamak (Water Strider)

#216 Tangkhul: Awui kachir eina tara ra-mi, thingrongli kaphung.
EN: Sap dripping from sliced rubber and wild fig vines in springtime.
Ans: Thing-tara (Tree Sap / Fig Latex)

#217 Tangkhul: Ngashunli chitharan kazat, ngaya tharan shimli pam.
EN: Forest pheasant boasting iridescent tail feathers in morning mist.
Ans: Vanao-ngashing (Blyth's Tragopan / Pheasant)

#218 Tangkhul: Kachon akha paimi, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Spiny mountain chestnut hull opening in autumn to drop sweet nuts.
Ans: Theikashai-khur (Chestnut Bur)

#219 Tangkhul: Phei mati leisangda, kaphungli kashao saikora kakon.
EN: Black bear climbing tall wild pear trees to shake down ripe fruit.
Ans: Sipam / Mountain bear (Asiatic Black Bear)

#220 Tangkhul: Awui kachirli tara ra-mi, thingrong kaphung saikora.
EN: Tree sap turning hard into amber resin on trunk wounds.
Ans: Thing-won ngasui (Tree Gum / Amber)

#221 Tangkhul: Kachon kathir, awui kachirli kaza phung.
EN: Stinging nettle leaf that burns the hand when brushed on ridges.
Ans: Kashung-pui / Nettle (Stinging Hill Nettle)

#222 Tangkhul: Apang phei makalei, tingri saikora kaphung katoh.
EN: Heavy rattan vine used for climbing towering virgin timber.
Ans: Pui-khang (Climbing Rattan Cane)

#223 Tangkhul: Awui kuiphungli meira lei, chitharan kachang phafa.
EN: Dragonfly hovering motionless over mountain streams on gossamer wings.
Ans: Khamara-tara (Dragonfly)

#224 Tangkhul: Phei taruk eina kachathat, meira katha ngaphar.
EN: Wasp building intricate mud nests under old eaves without mortar.

SECTION 9: CRAFTS, BLACKSMITHING & UTENSILS (226--250)

#226 Tangkhul: Apang akha leisangda, awui shimli samphung phung.
EN: Small bamboo basket worn at the waist to carry snails and crabs.
Ans: Kharai-kanao (Waist Gathering Basket)

#227 Tangkhul: Makhano makapha, akhon phungda rurung kasa.
EN: Split bamboo winnowing fan flicking chaff away with rhythmic clicks.
Ans: Yang-kharei (Paddy Winnow)

#228 Tangkhul: Makhana akha eina kathem saikora khavai.
EN: Carved wooden tobacco pipe shared among village elders at dusk.
Ans: Kuiri / Pipe (Wooden Tobacco Pipe)

#229 Tangkhul: Ngashunli kashuk khalen, ngaya tharan akha eina.
EN: Pair of bamboo stilts used by young boys during festival games.
Ans: Phei-thing (Bamboo Stilts)

#230 Tangkhul: Amai kathi kharur, meili thikha ngatak.
EN: Iron chisel used by artisans to carve buffalo emblems on house pillars
Ans: Thing-khur ngaphei (Carving Chisel)

#231 Tangkhul: Apang makalei, chikhikha chithei kashao.
EN: Split cane broom used to sweep dry chaff from the threshing mat.
Ans: Maza-kharek (Chaff Broom)

#232 Tangkhul: Kharurungli phei kathum, meili phei mangapa.
EN: Clay griddle used for roasting corn ears over white embers.
Ans: Ham-phei (Clay Roasting Griddle)

#233 Tangkhul: Kazing eina tara khayang, kapam tharan kuisam.
EN: Thick thatch grass tied in tight bundles along the roof framework.
Ans: Shim-khanao (Thatch Grass Bundles)

#234 Tangkhul: Shak akha eina kakhong, machun tharan kashak.
EN: Carved wooden toggle fastening the woven hunting bag tightly.
Ans: Thing-chabi (Carved Wooden Toggle)

#235 Tangkhul: Shim akha wui kachir, khangatha tharan kakhikha.
EN: Sliding wooden wicket door that keeps farm animals out of the kitchen.
Ans: Khamak-kanao (Half-door Wicket)

#236 Tangkhul: Meira khangatar, awui ngachonli machu kazip.
EN: Fine bone needles used in stitching thick rawhide shields.
Ans: Khari-ru (Bone Leather Needle)

#237 Tangkhul: Amai mashun, phei kachangli chathat kazat.
EN: Curved wooden sickle handle worn smooth by forty autumn harvests.
Ans: Ngaphei-pang (Wooden Sickle Handle)

#238 Tangkhul: Zingkum saikora khangam, awui kachonli kaza saikora.
EN: Large clay water vat cooled beneath the north eaves of the home.
Ans: Tara-ham (Clay Water Storage Urn)

#239 Tangkhul: Ngashunli khangapa, ngaya tharan phungda kazat.
EN: Hearthside ember-box carried to kindle neighboring fires in cold dawn.
Ans: Meikhu-ham (Ember Carrier Pot)

#240 Tangkhul: Kuisam kathir, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Tightly braided bamboo headband worn by warriors during war chants.
Ans: Kui-pui khangao (Warrior Headband)

#241 Tangkhul: Akhon phungda ra, saikora gaonli kachang ra.
EN: Small bronze gong struck softly to call students into village schools.
Ans: Kong-kanao (Small Bronze Gong)

#242 Tangkhul: Phei makalei, kaphung wui eina shimli ra-pam.
EN: Heavy flat hearthstone supporting the central cooking tripod.
Ans: Meiphung-lung (Hearth Foundation Stone)

#243 Tangkhul: Kachon kashan phung, khari kakhui tharan mangap.
EN: Woven cane rain cape hanging on the back porch peg.
Ans: Kup-chathat (Rattan Rain Cape)

SECTION 10: TERRACE FARMING & BOTANY (251--275)

#245 Tangkhul: Akui makalei, phei kathum eina kaphung katoh.
EN: Wooden tripod supporting the large boiling vat during community feasts
Ans: Ham-phung kharei (Community Feasting Tripod)

#246 Tangkhul: Awui akhon mahor katha, khangam saikora makhui.
EN: Hollow bamboo funnel used to strain fermenting rice mash into clay pot
Ans: Khor-kashak (Bamboo Liquid Funnel)

#247 Tangkhul: Ngashunli mei ngaka, ngaya tharan amik thi.
EN: Stone hearth curb that prevents burning embers from rolling onto floor
Ans: Meiphung-khamak (Hearth Stone Curb)

#248 Tangkhul: Mayarnaobing khangashan, apang akha eina kathem.
EN: Notched wooden ladder placed at the granary door during grain storage.
Ans: Thing-khalei (Notched Log Ladder)

#249 Tangkhul: Kuisam phungda lei, mayarnao kuisam kashan.
EN: Shining boar tusk necklace worn by head of the clan at annual feasts.
Ans: Hok-ha cha (Boar Tusk Necklace)

#250 Tangkhul: Tara mathik, mei mashak, phungkazat saikora.
EN: Large bamboo weaving basket holding dried cotton rolls before spinning
Ans: Kashan-kharai (Cotton Spool Basket)

#251 Tangkhul: Kakhon akha eina ring, kachikatha ngating saikora.
EN: Water flowing down tiered terrace steps without ever turning back.
Ans: Khur-tara (Terrace Cascade Water)

#252 Tangkhul: Maza kakhui, thot-thotli masham katha.
EN: Green paddy ears turning into heavy drooping gold in late October.
Ans: Maza-kachang (Ripening Autumn Rice)

#253 Tangkhul: Awui shimli kapam, ngaya tharan kakhikha ngatan.
EN: Deep mud of the terrace field that embraces the feet of planters.
Ans: Khur-ngathei (Terrace Paddy Mud)

#254 Tangkhul: Kharurungli tara, meili kathi tharan chakhang.
EN: Crispy roasted corn kernels popped on hot flat stones by children.
Ans: Theikhur-kakhang (Parched Hill Corn)

#255 Tangkhul: Phei akha, apang kathum eina kaphung katoh.
EN: Scarecrow made of rice straw and wooden bow set in middle of crop.
Ans: Minao-kaphung (Field Scarecrow)

#256 Tangkhul: Apang phei makalei, shim saikora kaphungli lei.
EN: Wild green fern tips collected in spring from wet mountain gullies.
Ans: Kashung-kanao (Wild Fiddlehead Fern)

#257 Tangkhul: Meira khangatar, awui kachonli kaza saikora phung.
EN: Black sesame seeds ground with garlic to make savory Tangkhul salt.
Ans: Chaphung-makhei (Black Sesame Seasoning)

#258 Tangkhul: Khari makalei, kaphung eina kashao saikora kakon.
EN: Heavy hoe chopping deep roots in forest plots during slash-and-burn.
Ans: Khurphei kharei (Heavy Clearing Hoe)

#259 Tangkhul: Awui amik kathuk, kha kakhikha ngatingli kathei.
EN: Wild red yam dug deep from rocky soil using long pointed digging stick
Ans: Ha-kashai (Wild Mountain Yam)

#260 Tangkhul: Akhon phungda ra, shim khavai saikora kakon.
EN: Clacking bamboo wind-chime sounding across fields to scare deer.
Ans: Pui-kakhon (Wind-blown Field Clapper)

#261 Tangkhul: Akui akha eina thot-thotli mik-khano kathum lei.
EN: Young bamboo shoot bursting up through dry soil after first thunder.
Ans: Pui-kanao (Tender Bamboo Shoot)

#262 Tangkhul: Shim akha wui chitharan kachir khani phafa.
EN: Two wooden clappers struck rhythmically while singing planting songs.
Ans: Thing-khangao (Wooden Song Clappers)

SECTION 11: HUMAN EXPERIENCE, HOSPITALITY & IDENTITY (276--300)

#263 Tangkhul: Mayarnaobing kacham saikora, kha kachir akha eina.
EN: Row of singing reapers cutting across golden terraces together.
Ans: Maza-kashao (Reapers Harvesting)

#264 Tangkhul: Na zatli azat, na pamli apam, kha khanukhungli.
EN: Mud drying on farmers' legs like second skin after long days in mud.
Ans: Ngathei-kaphung (Dried Paddy Silt on Legs)

#265 Tangkhul: Kacham shanao akha, awui shimli kakharak machuk.
EN: Fragrant coriander seeds stored in dry gourds for vegetable stew.
Ans: Won-chikhur (Coriander Seed)

#266 Tangkhul: Apang phungda zat, kha phei makalei; shim phung.
EN: Wild passion fruit hanging from vine trellis on mountain slopes.
Ans: Theishai-won (Wild Passion Fruit)

#267 Tangkhul: Ngashunli kashan kazat, ngaya tharan akui chili.
EN: Buffalo grazing on harvest stubble after the crops have been gathered.
Ans: Simuk-kaza (Grazing Water Buffalo)

#268 Tangkhul: Na khikha kaza makhano, kha kuiphungli lei.
EN: Golden straw stacks piled high around a pole for winter animal fodder.
Ans: Maza-pui (Straw Haystack)

#269 Tangkhul: Kakhon akha eina kathem, awui shimli phei mati.
EN: Small stream crab carrying green waterweed in its tiny front pincers.
Ans: Tara-wok kanao (Little Brook Crab)

#270 Tangkhul: Apang phei makalei, kha thingrong saikora kaphung.
EN: Wild black peppercorns growing in clusters around damp tree trunks.
Ans: Thei-khang (Wild Peppercorns)

#271 Tangkhul: Phei taruk eina kachathat, meira katha ngaphar.
EN: Honey-colored forest hornet fiercely defending its nest in oak tree.
Ans: Khangra-ngalava (Forest Hornet)

#272 Tangkhul: Shim akha wui kachir khani, tara kashan phafa.
EN: Two stone canals splitting the spring stream into two terrace sectors.
Ans: Tara-shongfa khani (Twin Water Canal Splitter)

#273 Tangkhul: Kachon akha paimi, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Tender yellow mustard blossoms coating winter hillside plots in gold.
Ans: Won-ngaphei (Hill Mustard Flowers)

#274 Tangkhul: Kakhikha kaza makano, kha ngashun-ngaya akhon.
EN: The tireless rhythm of pestle striking grain inside morning kitchens.
Ans: Sam-kakhon (Early Pestle Rhythms)

#275 Tangkhul: Kachir akha eina kashung, kacham tharan tara ra.
EN: Fresh hillside spring water cupped in green leaves and swallowed thirs
Ans: Tingri-kup tara (Leaf-cupped Spring Water)

#276 Tangkhul: Ngashunli khangapa, ngaya tharan amik kachang.
EN: Memories of brave ancestors told by elders as fire embers fade to grey
Ans: Thotrin-tui (Ancestral Tales)

#277 Tangkhul: Kakhon akha eina ring, phei mati eina phungkazat.
EN: Four clan elders holding the woven shroud during traditional farewell.
Ans: Kachon-phung (Clan Elders Shroud)

#278 Tangkhul: Amik akha leisangda, awui shimli kaphung katoh.
EN: Solitary smoke plume rising above the village at morning breakfast tim
Ans: Meikhu-ngashun (Morning Chimney Smoke)

#279 Tangkhul: Aphei akha eina kazat, kaphungli kashao saikora.
EN: Lone hunter climbing through dense fog towards high hunting blinds.
Ans: Minao-kashao (Hunter in Mist)

#280 Tangkhul: Kachir khani phafa, kakhon saikora kashang.
EN: A grandmother's gentle lullaby putting crying infants to sleep on porc
Ans: Lairachan-kanao (Grandmother's Lullaby)

#281 Tangkhul: Awui shimli kaza phung, awui khari kachang.
EN: Bond of marriage uniting two ancient mountain clans together.
Ans: Ngalava-kashang (Sacred Clan Marriage Bond)

#282 Tangkhul: Phei mati leisangda, shimli kashuk khalen saikora.
EN: Old dog dozing by the warm hearth, twitching in dreams of past hunts.
Ans: Fa-kharar (Old Hearthside Hound)

#283 Tangkhul: Tara zangli kapam, phei makalei chathat kazat.
EN: Shared laughter echoing down the trail as young women fetch water.
Ans: Ngalanaobing kakhon (Water Maiden Laughter)

#284 Tangkhul: Apang phei akha eina thot-thotli masham katha.
EN: Two brothers plowing together who know each other's thought without wo
Ans: Amei-ngasot (Brotherhood in Labor)

#285 Tangkhul: Akui makalei, phei mati eina phung kazat.
EN: Village hospitality pot that is never empty when strangers knock.
Ans: Khamiyang-ham (Never-empty Guest Pot)

#286 Tangkhul: Kaphung tharan kazat, awui ngachonli tara phung.
EN: Dew glistening on spiderwebs stretched between garden posts at dawn.
Ans: Chikhamak-tingri (Dewy Morning Spiderweb)

#287 Tangkhul: Ngashunli tara mathik, ngaya tharan chimik kakha.
EN: The warmth of home welcomed from afar by a tiny golden window glow.
Ans: Shim-meira (Welcoming Window Light)

#288 Tangkhul: Kachon akha paimi, kacham tharan ngachon pamei.
EN: Warm red blanket wrapped around an ailing grandfather in December chil
Ans: Kachon kahung (Warm Winter Red Blanket)

#289 Tangkhul: Phei mati eina kazat, awui kuiphungli ngalang.
EN: A young father carrying his toddler on back tied with a woven sash.
Ans: Ava-phung (Father carrying Child)

#290 Tangkhul: Mayarnaobing saikora, awui phei khani eina.
EN: The ancient mountain footpath worn smooth by ten generations of feet.
Ans: Shongfa kharar (Ancestral Footpath)

#291 Tangkhul: Akui akha eina thot-thotli mik-khano kathum lei.
EN: Rattling seeds inside a dry marrow pod entertaining a crying child.
Ans: Theikhur-kanao (Baby Gourd Rattle)

#292 Tangkhul: Shim akha wui chitharan kachir khani phafa.
EN: Tears of relief when a lost hunter answers the horn from high ridge.
Ans: Amik-tara kapha (Tears of Joy and Relief)

#293 Tangkhul: Mayarnaobing kacham saikora, kha kachir akha eina.
EN: Ring of dancing youths stamping bare feet in unison on packed clay.
Ans: Khamang-kashan (Circle Dance Stamping)

#294 Tangkhul: Na zatli azat, na pamli apam, kha khanukhungli.
EN: Old memories that return to mind whenever autumn leaves start turning.
Ans: Phaning-kharar (Nostalgic Memories)

#295 Tangkhul: Kacham shanao akha, awui shimli kakharak machuk.
EN: A warm hearth that waits patiently for the hunter's return in blizzard
Ans: Meiphung-kashung (Waiting Home Fire)

#296 Tangkhul: Apang phungda zat, kha phei makalei; shim phung.
EN: The secret joy in a mother's heart seeing her child's first harvest bu
Ans: Ava-ning (Mother's Proud Heart)

#297 Tangkhul: Ngashunli kashan kazat, ngaya tharan akui chili.
EN: Quiet night breeze swaying bamboo clumps around village churchyard.
Ans: Masi-ngaya (Peaceful Night Zephyr)

#298 Tangkhul: Na khikha kaza makhano, kha kuiphungli lei.
EN: Lifelong wisdom gathered in the silent thoughts of a village chieftain
Ans: Wungnao-phaning (Chieftain's Silent Wisdom)

#299 Tangkhul: Kakhon akha eina kathem, awui shimli phei mati.
EN: Warm greeting called out across valleys when crossing neighbor's fence

#300 Tangkhul: Mayarnaobing saikora, awui phei khani eina okathui.

EN: The unbreakable bond that ties the Tangkhul people to their sacred hil

Ans: Tangkhul Ram (Tangkhul Homeland & Identity)
